DENIAL LETTER

Whereas, the North Carolina Respiratory Care Board (Board) pursuant to GS 90-659 (b) has the power to deny the issuance of a Respiratory Care License for failure to meet the requirements as stated in the Respiratory Care Practice Act; and

Whereas, the Board received information that you had been convicted of a felony for fraud and failed to disclose the conviction on the application for licensure in violation of GS 90-659(a)(1) a; and

Whereas, you failed to show for an Informal Interview conference held on January 12, 2011 and again on April 13, 2011 to answer to the charges; and

Whereas, the Board met on April 14, 2011 to consider your application and has determined to deny your request for licensure as a Respiratory Care Practitioner in North Carolina;

Therefore, a Denial Letter is issued to you pursuant to the policies of the Board.

On behalf of the Board,

Floyd E. Boyer, RRT, RCP
Executive Director
